Hannah Standage, 13

When I was 10, I learned what the word abortion meant. I had heard it in conversations between my parents or siblings but I never gave much thought to it. As soon as I found out what it meant, I felt as though a weight was placed on my shoulders, that I needed to do something.

I decided to step up and volunteer with Right to Life Alliance AZ. I helped at one of their events and there I met Sandy Money, the advisor of TAR's. I joined soon after I saw what a great organization it is. I've loved being in TAR's and have learned so much. I'd recommend it to any teens in Arizona if they want to get involved with the conservative movement!
